DAISY JEROME'S FIRST NIGHT IS A GAY SUCCESS

London Comedienne is Loudly Appraised for Her Songs, Dances and Mannerisms

Sprightly Miss Daisy Jerome, from the churning music halls of London and more recently from Australia, sang, danced and charmed her way into most applauded favoritism at the Bijou theater last night, the first of a two-night engagement.

Miss Jerome came with the reputation of being one of London's favorite comedienne, and at once showed herself possessed of a ceaseless activity much like the "rag" dancers of the United States. She has a female baritone voice, unexpectedly deep for her slight physique, several accents which she dons and doffs at will, a number of catchy songs and a very merry little way with her. Typical of music hall taste, she followed a number of gay, mischievous and near-naughty songs with a pathetic ballad dragging in the European war and received loud applause for it.

Between songs and dances she made several little talks from the stage, once apologizing for the music, another time saying she was trying out songs before going to New York, or something to that effect, all of which the audience received good naturedly.

Miss Ruby Dent, associate of the Royal Academy of Music, was her accompanied, and Miss Dent furnished one of the decidedly good features of the performance. She played several piano selections and sang two songs in a strong, sweet and well controlled mezzo-soprano.

The Bijou program last night included several moving pictures above the ordinary in interest, "The Man Who Couldn't Beat Conscience" has some extraordinarily good photography in it.

Altogether the program is high-class and Miss Jerome, with her flaming, flashing red hair, flashing feet, jaunty toss of the head and "reglar devil" mannerisms, is a real feature.

MANOA NIGHT AT HEINIE'S

A cordial invitation is extended to all tourists, passengers and officers of the S. S. Manoa to attend a dinner and dance to be given at Heinie's Tavern, "on the Beach at Waikiki," this evening.

Upon arriving in Honolulu the first evening should be spent at this famous resort on the beach, where a most enjoyable time awaits everyone.
There, over the splashing waves, to the tune of "Sonny" Cunha's lively Hawaiian music, with the tropic night and the gay dancers around you, you get the real Hawaiian atmosphere.

A splendid menu has been prepared and the cabaret features will be exceptionally good. Be sure to make your evening's reservations early and come and enjoy yourselves as you never have before.—Adv.
